GRADING POLICY

Science and math courses must be taken A/F. An excess of pass/fail courses should be avoided. If a course is repeated, both grades are considered.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA DULUTH MEDICAL SCHOOL REQUIREMENTS

Duluth requirements differ from the Twin Cities in the liberal education category. Duluth requires 8 sem/12 quarter credits in psychology, sociology, and/or anthropology with one course at the upper-level and 8 sem/12 quarter credits in humanities with one course at the upper-level.

MAYO MEDICAL SCHOOL REQUIREMENTS

The English requirement is met for Mayo by completing the college composition requirement. In the science category, biochemistry is required as is a full year of biology (two quarters is insufficient). The liberal education requirement is fulfilled by the completion of a degree.
Academic Advising
Your college adviser will help you integrate your pre-Med coursework into your overall undergraduate education. Please visit your adviser on a regular basis to stay on track.

Health Careers Center
Pre Med info sessions are offered. Call (612) 624-6767 or visit www.healthcareers.umn.edu

Writing your personal statement
You should discuss letters of recommendation with faculty and employers/supervisors who know you well. Contact the Career and Community Learning Center in 135 Johnston Hall to establish a letter file. There is a minimal fee.

MCAT and medical school books
The Career and Community Learning Center maintains a reference library in its browsing room. They have books about MCAT preparation and applying to Medical School.

Student Organizations & Internships
Become involved in organizations to develop leadership skills and meet new friends. Alpha Epsilon Delta & AMSA are organizations for pre-Med students. Check out these useful web sites:
